CALLED ROOSEVELT A LIAR.

Twice in one speech at Tulaca, N.
Y., last night, Prof. E. H. Woodruff, of Cornell University, called Theodore Roosevelt a liar. Once he referred to the former president as an "unmitigated liar." His attack, made at a political rally over which he presided, threw the house into an uproar. There were catcalls, hisses, and cheering, with a steady shout behind them all of "Parker! Parker!" for the next speaker, former Judge Alton B.
Parker.

Judge Parker sprang to his feet and began the audience to allow Prof.
Woodruff to be heard. The noisier part of the house complied.

As soon as Prof. Woodruff opened his speech he began to review the Bellamy Storer episode, which Roosevelt only recently declared was closed.
He charged that when Roosevelt denied sending Bellamy Storer to the Vatican, he was "an unmitigated liar," and there were letters in his office, said the professor, to bear him out.

The uproar over this attack had barely subsided when the professor took up the cudgels again. Roosevelt was twice a liar, he said, when he denied the late E. H. Harriman had subscribed to a corruption fund to be used for Roosevelt's election to the presidency. He closed with a quotation from the Italian historian of Rome, Ferreiro, transferred from Claudius, to whom it was originally applied by the writer, to Roosevelt. The speaker was careful to specify that he meant to imply no comparison between the private life of Claudius and Roosevelt.
The quotation follows:

"The youngest recruit in the ranks of the proletariat, who knew neither fear nor scruples, and combined the violence of the demagogue with the self assurance of the aristocrat, he was prepared to assert his claim to dominate the community—no so much by his intellect, which was indeed in no way comparable, but by the one quality in which he outshone all his rivals—by his uncontrollable audacity."

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liniment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liniment takes out the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by W. F.
Creighton and Richard Gibson.

STRIKE ORDERED.

A strike in sympathy with the Missouri Pacific Railroad machinists, effective today, was decided on last night by labor leaders in St. Louis. The strike will effect boilermakers, metal workers, and blacksmiths of the Gould lines, if carried out. It is said, however, to be doubtful whether the men will obey the strike order.

The company's side of the controversy was stated last night by General Manager W. Sullivan in a signed card as follows:

"There are no material differences existing between the company and the machinists except the question of the reinstatement of the foremen who went out with the men. The machinists' organization insists on their reinstatement to the positions they formerly held, which request has been refused. The right of the railway company to select its officers of whatever rank, including foremen, is one which cannot be relinquished to a labor organization, while the company is held to responsibility for the safety and efficiency of its service. The action of the other labor organizations to coerce the railway company into compliance with the machinists' demands by violation of a sympathetic strike, entered into since the contract agreements were declared, cannot be permitted to interfere with the company in its determination to maintain control of its business through its own official organization."

By a vote of 1,024 to 325 it was languaged yesterday that the street car men of Pittsburgh, Pa., have voted to empower the executive committee of their union to call a strike against the Pittsburgh Street Railway Company if the company persists in what the men declare to be a discrimination against union men. The immediate cause of their employees' dissatisfaction is the recent discharge of 160 shopmen, and the company's refusal to reinstate these employees.

George Albrecht, foreman for Hart Schaffner & Marx, of Chicago, the storm center of the garment-workers' strike, was stabbed in the hand by alleged strikers yesterday. He was surrounded by a dozen men, believed to have been strikers. He tried to force his way through the ring, when one of his assailants drew a knife and made a lunge at him. The foreman threw up his arms to ward off the blow, and the blade pierced his hand. The supposed strikers escaped. Heretofore the strike has been marked by three riots within a week.

HUSBAND'S AWFUL REVENGE.

To punish his wife, who had left home, and to take revenge of his relatives who were hiding his wife's whereabouts, Henry Schroeder, of Chicago, 52 years of age, in Spokane, Wyn., Wednesday night shot and killed his three-year-old niece, Ruth Taylor, and then committed suicide.

The girl's mother was working in an adjoining room.

According to Mrs. Taylor, her brother-in-law came to her home on Tuesday from Chicago, looking for his wife, who had been in Spokane with another man. The two had been at the Taylor home a few days ago, but Mrs. Taylor would not tell Schroeder where they had gone, fearing that he would injure them.

While Mrs. Taylor was preparing supper Schroeder carried the little girl into the parlor, where he rocked her to sleep. Then he took a revolver from a grip and, placing it against the child's breast, fired two shots. He then fired a bullet into his right temple.

Schroeder left a letter telling his plan of revenge.

CHILD'S PITIFUL PLIGHT.

With a three-year-old son leaning over the body of his mother pleading, asking her why she did not get up, the parents of the child were yesterday found dead in their little home in the lower section of Philadelphia, each with a bullet in the body. The double tragedy was revealed by an aunt of the child, and the police, after an investigation, came to the conclusion that the husband, John Bothwell, a carpenter, had killed his wife and then committed suicide.

When the aunt walked into the house yesterday to pay a visit she saw no one on the lower floor, and went to the second story, where she found the child leaning over his mother imploring her to get up.

"Why don't you get up, mamma," the boy tearfully pleaded, but there was no response.

Horror-stricken and frightened at the sight of the lifeless form of her sister, the visitor rushed down stairs and found the husband dead in the kitchen.

Giving the alarm, the police were quickly upon the scene. The child, looking worn from lack of food and loss of sleep, did not comprehend what all the strange doings were about. The police believe the tragedy occurred Wednesday morning. The child said his parents had been quarreling, and he heard a noise, which the police think came from revolver shots fired by the husband.

Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind.

It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardium, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much.

"Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health.

"I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.
